

NEW CHALET SUITE UNVEILED AT THE ALPINA GSTAAD EXCLUSIVE LUXURY IN THE ALPS

July 2016: This summer, The Alpina Gstaad unveils its brand new Chalet Suite, a discreet haven in the Swiss Alps. Ideal for those seeking privacy without compromising on space, the three-bedroom suite offers the exclusivity of an apartment which is set apart from the rest of the hotel.

Guests can entertain, dine and relax in the quiet solitude of this idyllic mountain retreat. Perfect for families, small groups of friends and those who prefer their own dining facilities, the new suite features a large living area with a fully equipped open kitchen and dining area. Sip cocktails in the cosy bar area, then indulge family and friends with dinner around the large dining table, which seats eight.

Echoing the hotel's natural surroundings, the suite décor reflects the authentic alpine character of the region. The luxurious contemporary design blends seamlessly with wooden ceilings, carvings and bespoke furnishings.

Furthermore, the suite features balconies on all sides, where guests can drink in 360 degree views of the surrounding mountains. Sleeping up to six in great comfort, there is a sumptuous junior suite and two further deluxe bedrooms.

The new Chalet Suite complements the existing, exceptional accommodation at The Alpina Gstaad, including the deluxe three-bedroom Panorama Suite.

Rates for the Chalet Suite, which sleeps up to six people, start from 5,000 CHF (approx. £3,842) per night. For reservations email info@thealpinagstaad.ch or visit thealpinagstaad.ch.
